Pensionomics:

Measuring the Economic Impact of State and Local Pension Plans

Key Findings

Benefits paid by state and local pension plans support a significant amount of economic activity in the state of Pennsylvania.

Pension benefits received by retirees are spent in the local community. This spending ripples through the economy, as one person's spending becomes another person's income, creating a multiplier effect.

Expenditures stemming from state and local pensions supported...

- 70,981 jobs that paid $4.4 billion in wages and salaries
- $10.5 billion in total economic output
- $1.6 billion in federal, state, and local tax revenues

... in the state of Pennsylvania.

Each dollar paid out in pension benefits supported $1.49 in total economic activity in Pennsylvania.

Each dollar "invested" by Pennsylvania taxpayers in these plans supported $9.46 in total economic activity in the state.

Overview

Expenditures made by retirees of state and local government provide a steady economic stimulus to Pennsylvania communities and the state economy. In 2006, 341,617 residents of Pennsylvania received a total of $7.01 billion in pension benefits from state and local pension plans, with $6.81 billion paid from plans within the state and the remainder originating from plans in other states.

The average pension benefit received was $1,710 per month or $20,523 per year. These modest benefits provide retired teachers, public safety personnel and others who served the public during their working careers income to meet basic needs in retirement.

Impact on Jobs and Incomes

Retiree expenditures stemming from state and local pension plan benefits supported 70,981 jobs in the state. The total income to state residents supported by pension expenditures was $4.4 billion.

Of this, the greatest share, $2.4 billion, was comprised of employee compensation (wages and salaries). Proprietors' income (self-employment income) represented $347.1 million, and other property income (including payments from interest, rent, royalties, profits and dividends) totaled $1.6 billion.

Economic Impact

State and local pension funds in Pennsylvania and other states paid a total of $7.01 billion in benefits to Pennsylvania residents in 2006. Retirees' expenditures from these benefits supported a total of $10.5 billion in total economic output in the state, and $4.9 billion in value added in the state.

$6.8 billion in direct economic impacts were supported by retirees' expenditures on goods and services from businesses in the state. An additional $1.7 billion in indirect economic impact resulted when these businesses purchased additional goods and services, generating additional income in the local economy. $1.9 billion in induced impacts occurred when employees hired by businesses as a result of the direct and indirect impacts made expenditures, supporting even more additional income.

————— Total Economic Impact $10.5 billion —————

DIRECT
IMPACT
$6.8 billion

INDIRECT
IMPACT
$1.7 billion

INDUCED IMPACT
$1.9 billion

Economic Multipliers

* Caution should be used in interpreting this number, because the Census data used reflect the taxable status of contributions only; because employee contributions may be reported as taxpayer contributions, the multiplier here may be underestimated.

Impact on Tax Revenues

State and local pension payments made to Pennsylvania residents supported a total of $1.6 billion in revenue to federal, state and local governments. Taxes paid by retirees and beneficiaries directly out of pension payments totaled $245.4 million. Taxes attributable to direct, indirect and induced expenditures accounted for $1.3 billion in tax revenue.

Federal Tax	1,002.1 million
State/Local Tax	564.3 million
Other Corporate Taxes	2.4 million
Total	$1,568.7 billion
