

NEWS CLIPS

APSCUF COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

KEVIN KODISH, DIRECTOR

MONICA TROUTMAN, SECRETARY

JANUARY 14, 2010

HERE IS A LIST OF TODAY'S NEWS ARTICLES. TO READ THE COMPLETE ARTICLE CLICK ON THE HEADLINE.

Schools criticized for aid inequities

Public universities are failing in their mission to provide affordable and accessible college educations to low-income students, according to education advocacy group The Education Trust. "As more high school students turn toward college, many colleges are turning away from them," said Kati Haycock, - TRIB

CMU brain findings 'big leap forward'

Carnegie Mellon University researchers say they've taken a step closer to building machines that someday could read people's minds. The neuroscientists and computer scientists report today in the science journal PLoS One that they have developed the ability to reliably - TRIB

Mercyhurst College students serve up healthy foods

Mercyhurst College graduate assistant Matt Hubert didn't much care which foods were the healthiest. At the college's annual "Taste or Waist" food fair Wednesday, Hubert worked his way around the student union's Great Room sampling chocolate... - ERIE TIMES

State universities add requirements of high school students for admission

New admission requirements at the 14 universities in the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education will take effect starting with the class of 2013, requiring students to pass a series of high school courses on a list to gain entry. This includes four years of English, three years of math -- a math or... - PATRIOT

UPMC enlisted for e-mentoring effort

Dave Mosey said he thinks there are more teens in need of mentors than mentors with time. "Being a face-to-face mentor is often complicated. There are even legal and security issues involved when you are dealing with underage kids," said Mosey, executive director of SmartFutures, a Downtown - TRIB

Study sees enrollment gaps at state colleges

The nation's 50 flagship state universities fail to enroll minority and low-income students at proportions similar to their state populations or help them to graduate on par with white students, a national study released yesterday said. The University of Delaware placed among the bottom - INQUIRER

Meeting set for Rockview land

BENNER TOWNSHIP — With the last year of Gov. Ed Rendell's administration under way, a public meeting has been scheduled on the fate of 1,800 acres of Rockview state prison land north of Interstate 99. The meeting will take place at 6 p.m. Jan. 28 at the Benner Township... - CENTRE DAILY

Nursing students learn the trade on a personal level

Julie Ludwig checked Muoi Le's blood pressure and weight, listened to her heartbeat and lungs. The process reassured Le, 60, that she is as healthy as possible. It also helped Ludwig hone her nursing skills. But the lesson covered much more than how to use a stethoscope. It created... - YORK DAILY

Farm Show fertile field for college recruiters

HARRISBURG - Dr. Marianne L. Fivek is spending her week at the Pennsylvania Farm Show helping to break down stereotypes. At the Penn State University booth inside the main hall at the Farm Show Complex, Fivek, a recruiter with the College of Agricultural Sciences,... - READING EAGLE

State system could get Phila. campus

Pennsylvania higher-education officials are in talks with Mayor Nutter's office about opening a state university campus in Philadelphia, state and city officials confirmed yesterday. "It is something we would be interested in participating in," said Kenn Marshall, a spokesman for the Pennsylvania - INQUIRER

Frat council: No alcohol at rush

Penn State's Interfraternity Council has unanimously adopted a policy, starting next week, that will prohibit alcohol at all recruitment events. "The new policy is intended to do two things," said IFC President Max Wendkos. "One, to ensure the safety of new recruits and two, to... - CENTRE DAILY

Inside Higher Education Daily News Update Please click “more” to read complete article

January 14, 2010

Flogging the Flagships

Despite well-publicized expansions of aid, public research universities have made too little progress in expanding representation of low-income and minority students, report asserts. more

Curbing Athletic Spending

Scholars at NCAA convention offer suggestions for how to cut skyrocketing costs of college sports. more

When Tenure Means Nothing

AAUP finds "especially egregious" violations of faculty rights in dismissals of 55 professors at Clark Atlanta in February. more

Israel in the American Classroom

Number of courses focused on the country are way up, and they are appearing in a growing number of disciplines, but not so much in Middle Eastern studies, report finds. more

Sign of the Times

After years of offering non-credit courses online, New York Times Company and selected colleges will jointly award certificates in credit, distance education certificate programs. more

APSCUF LABOR CONFERENCE FEATURED ON “BEHIND THE HEADLINES.”

Click on the link below to view the “Behind the Headlines” show featuring highlights from the 2009 APSCUF/PSEA Labor Conference

<http://www.thevoiceofpa.net/BrowseMedia/Television/behindtheheadlines.aspx?itemId=259>

Click on the link below to view remarks made by State APSCUF President Steve at the 2009 APSCUF/PSEA Labor Conference. Presentations made at the Conference by Eric Elliot, Marc Bousquet and Mark Smith are also included.

<http://www.thevoiceofpa.net/BrowseMedia/Television/behindtheheadlines.aspx?itemId=266>