

NEWS CLIPS

APSCUF COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

KEVIN KODISH, DIRECTOR

MONICA TROUTMAN, SECRETARY

FEBRUARY 22, 2010

HERE IS A LIST OF TODAY'S NEWS ARTICLES. TO READ THE COMPLETE ARTICLE CLICK ON THE HEADLINE.

LHU to establish Athletics Council

LOCK HAVEN - An athletics council will be established at Lock Haven University to advise the Council of Trustees and the university president on intercollegiate athletics.

St. Vincent students fight for return of ousted monk

As Vatican officials consider whether a popular Benedictine monk may return to ministry after pornography was found on his computer, some students at St. Vincent College are rallying to support him, arguing that the case against him is flawed. On Wednesday, 73 of them went to class in T-shirts.... - POST-GAZ.

JoePa's glasses net \$9,000 at charity auction

Two Penn State graduates are paying $9,000 for a chance to see through Joe Paterno's glasses... - AP

Temple to study how to help students lose weight

Early in her college career, Kimberly Davidson fell into the typical campus lifestyle, a tailor-made prescription for weight gain: Study hard. Party. Watch TV. Eat junk food. Davidson, 21, a junior at Temple University, had put on the so-called Freshman 15. Now she would like to lose about 30 pounds,.... - INQUIRER

Thon raises record \$7.8 million

Another 46 sleepless hours and another record fundraising number for Thon. Despite a national recession that has hampered giving to many charities, Penn State IFC/Panhellenic Dance Marathon raised $7,838,054.36 to help families fighting pediatric cancer. "I'm a little in shock about the number.. .. - CENTRE DAILY

O'Malley proposes changes in tenure, test rules for chance at federal funds

The lure of $4 billion in federal funding at a time of fiscal peril has driven state after state toward school reforms long considered politically unlikely, undoable or unthinkable. This week, Maryland provided the latest surprise: Gov. Martin O'Malley, who is seeking union support for... - WASH POST

Students should have a say in Moravian College's new housing and meal-plan policies

As Moravian College students rush to avoid an on-campus housing policy and meal plan unexpectedly being shoved down their throats, don't be surprised if the number of adoption applications for college-aged children within a 50-mile radius of downtown Bethlehem suddenly spikes.... - EASTON EXPRESS

Marywood's architecture school builds on foundation

At about half court, where many basketball games were once played, Steven Dougherty picked up his pencil. With a watchful eye from adjunct professor Mark Bacon, Dougherty sketched his axonometric drawing of a house. "Make sure you're drawing with precision," Bacon said. "Keep pushing."... - WB CIT. VOICE

LCCC to host free youth dental clinic

It's Kids' Cavity Prevention Day again this Saturday at Luzerne County Community College in Nanticoke. Youth from 3 to 16 years of age can come to the college's dental clinic between 9 a.m. and noon and receive free dental care and a toothbrush. Care will include dental exams, cavity varnish.... - WB CIT. VOICE

Penn professor works to transform drug-control policy

By Don Sapatkin Inquirer Staff Writer To much of official Washington, the portrait of substance abuse in the United States is grim: More than 22 million Americans abuse drugs or alcohol. Just 10 percent of them get treated - and an alarming number relapse. At treatment centers designed.... - INQUIRER

Sons of legal giants to explore school desegregation

History books and law journals chronicle Thurgood Marshall's historic ascension from a small historically black university in Pennsylvania to a seat on the U.S. Supreme Court. But history has underplayed the role Charles Hamilton Houston played in Marshall's life and career, said the son of the late justice.... - TRIB

New fraternity might be moving to W. James

Is Franklin & Marshall College's Greek system expanding? The college had asked for a special exception for a fraternity at 550 W. James St., according to an agenda posted by the city zoning hearing board. The matter was to be considered by the board at its meeting Monday.... - SUNDAY NEWS

Penn State looks to grow alcohol-free events

UNIVERSITY PARK — Started in 1996 as an alcohol-free alternative for student entertainment, Penn State's LateNight program is looking to recharge and boost attendance in the midst of the university's efforts to curb excessive drinking by students. Photo provided... - CENTRE DAILY

02-21-2010

Building on their support

Bethlehem teachers working to raise funds needed to start innovative engineering program. On an August night, three science teachers and their principal sat before the Bethlehem Area School Board knowing their idea would be a hard sell. They needed money -- $300,000 -- to start a.... - MORNING CALL

More for college: Senators must cut out the student loan middleman

Pennsylvania college students have a lot riding on a bill, now pending in the U.S. Senate, that would revamp the financial aid market. If the Student Aid and Fiscal Responsibility Act is enacted, more Pennsylvanians will be eligible for more money in the form of Pell grants,... - POST-GAZ.

Students in Pitt's M.B.A. program team up as corporate consultants

When Danish entrepreneurs Peter and Ulla Bak raised the possibility of starting commuter rail service along three major Pittsburgh highways, the University of Pittsburgh's G.M. "Bud" Smith Jr. was skeptical. But Mr. Smith, whose father shut down passenger service along Ohio River... - POST-GAZ.

No cause for celebration

STATE COLLEGE — Penn State student leaders pushing back against the controversial collegiate holiday State Patty's Day have given law enforcement hope that this year the event may be manageable, despite its history of drunken excesses. Still, police plan to be ready for almost anything.... - CENTRE DAILY

Cal U Maglev project not included in grant

This week's announcement of $1.5 billion in federal funding for transportation projects was a disappointment for several organizations in the region that were hoping to make the list. Among the 1,400 applicants that submitted a total of $60 billion in proposed projects were the Urban Maglev.... - UNION. HERALD

Contract extension favored for Edinboro U. president

Edinboro University trustees Friday recommended extending the contract of President Jeremy D. Brown, who became president in July 2007 under a three-year contract. A one-year extension was recommended. The State System of Higher Education board of governors will make a final decision.... - POST-GAZ.

Ps. state universities consider eliminating some majors

Lock Haven University wants to build a classroom and research center that will bring to campus new science majors, including aspiring chemists. Yet that didn't stop the State System of Higher Education from placing the future of the general chemistry degree program on that campus under review.... - POST-GAZ.

Inside Higher Education

Daily News Update

February 23, 2010

A Great Experiment

One year in, questions remain about University of the People and its ambitious goal of offering free higher education to students around the world. more

Flat Salaries for Senior Administrators

Median increase for top higher ed positions in 2009-10 is 0%. more

Transfer Matchmaker

New service pairs community college students who wish to continue their education with interested four-year institutions. more

Standing Up for Explicit Exhibit

A year after one university insisted on removing part of photography show, U. of Louisville defends the project, which includes naked images of girls and women. more

Filling Key Presidency in Christian Higher Ed

Wheaton of Illinois names a new leader -- at a time the college enjoys greater prominence and faces some criticism. more