

NEWS CLIPS

APSCUF COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

KEVIN KODISH, DIRECTOR

MONICA TROUTMAN, SECRETARY

MARCH 4, 2010

HERE IS A LIST OF TODAY'S NEWS ARTICLES. TO READ THE COMPLETE ARTICLE CLICK ON THE HEADLINE

Enrollees rolling the dice

Registration is brisk as students enroll at Northampton Community College's Tannersville campus to train to be casino table games workers. Al Huff looked over the chaos in two storefronts at a Tannersville shopping center Wednesday as workers pieced together blackjack, poker and baccarat... - MORNING CALL

Bethlehem Councilman J. William Reynolds supports Moravian College decision to house all students on campus

BETHLEHEM | City Councilman J. William Reynolds plans to back Moravian College on its decision to require all students to live on campus. Reynolds, himself a Moravian graduate, said he's attended several block watch meetings and knows the difficulties the students have caused... - EASTON EXPRESS

New Lehigh institute will coordinate business efforts

Lehigh University has created a new institute to support entrepreneurship and it will carry the name of its chief benefactor, one of the area's best-known philanthropists. The Dexter F. Baker Institute for Entrepreneurship, Creativity and Innovation will "actively foster and champion the.... - MORNING CALL

CMU project to track signs of dementia

Scientists from Carnegie Mellon University plan to use wireless sensors in the homes of about 50 older adults who live alone to see if they can detect behavior that could indicate the onset of dementia or physical infirmities. The research team is one of five nationwide selected by the Robert Wood... - TRIB

Bulletin board: Moral courage, ethics to be topics at KU forum

The Department of Social Work at Kutztown University will host its eighth annual community forum on Friday. The forum, "Moral Courage and the Ethics of Helping Others: Tough Choices in Tough Times," will include panelists Dr. Kimberly J. Strom-Gottfried of the University of North Carolina.... - READING EAGLE

Pennsylvania state senators show no interest in cutting off state aid to Penn State, Pitt, Temple and Lincoln universities

Leaders of the four so-called state-related universities - Penn State, Pitt, Temple and Lincoln - told state senators that their out-of-state tuition rates would become the rates they would charge to in-state students if state funding to their schools evaporated.... - PATRIOT

Spanier warns of funding 'crisis'

HARRISBURG — Penn State has avoided financial disaster as it makes its way through the economic turmoil and stagnant state funding, but the outlook for the upcoming fiscal year is daunting. That was the message Penn State President Graham Spanier gave to the state... - CENTRE DAILY

Giving better than receiving for just a few

Blood or money, it seems to work out pretty much the same. WDUQ just had a record fundraising drive, taking in nearly $526,000 in just 10 days, which is more than double what the public station took in last February -- more than last year's February and October drives combined.... - POST-GAZ.

Environmental building show set for LCCC

As environmentally sustainable options become more mainstream in the building industry, designers aren't always aware which ones are available locally. That's why the Luzerne County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers and the Northeastern Chapter.... - WB TIMES LEADER

Pa. among states focusing on raising graduation rates

Seventeen states including Pennsylvania have resolved to significantly raise college completion rates by 2020, something a group spearheading the effort called critical to America's economic future.... - POST-GAZ.

Allegheny College waste oil to help Meadville boost biodiesel production

MEADVILLE -- Expect the city to smell even more like a midway snack stand this spring, thanks to a generous helping of Allegheny College's used cooking oil. Oil from the school's dining halls will soon be fed through a small... - ERIE TIMES

Inside Higher Education
Daily News Update
March 4, 2010

Medical Schools Expand -- and Contract

Economic realities shrink classes at a few U.S. medical schools, undercutting push to increase physician work force. more

Turning Off the Lights

What's it like to be a liberal arts college's last classicist -- a one-person department a college decides it can live without? more

Fighting a Copyright Charge

UCLA says it will start streaming videos on course Web sites again -- despite legal threats from an educational media trade group. more

'Harnessing America's Wasted Talent'

Peter Smith, former college president and politician, discusses his new book's call for changes in higher education to better serve the lost "middle third" of students. more

New Presidents or Provosts: Baylor U., Briarcliffe College, College of the Albemarle, U. of Michigan at Flint, U. of San Francisco, William Penn U., Youngstown State U. more