

NEWS CLIPS

APSCUF COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

KEVIN KODISH, DIRECTOR

MONICA TROUTMAN, SECRETARY

APRIL 10-12, 2010

HERE IS A LIST OF TODAY'S NEWS ARTICLES. TO READ THE COMPLETE ARTICLE CLICK ON THE HEADLINE

State System refuses talks over retiree buyouts

Seeking to cut costs, the State System of Higher Education is offering its unions financial incentives for some members to retire, and all but one union has accepted. Five labor unions at the 14 state universities have accepted the offer that... - PATRIOT

The next computer frontier: Your skin

Carnegie Mellon doctoral student has big plans for the way we input information You haven't bought a mobile phone, music player or computer yet that uses any of the novel inventions that Chris Harrison has created. But in 10 to 15 years a lot of people in the human.... - POST-GAZ.

Shippensburg University student wins logo contest for the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education

A Shippensburg University student's graphic design featuring the state's outline with dots identifying the location of each of the 14 state universities and a sunburst behind it is the new logo for the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education.... - PATRIOT

Questions about projections feed doubts about community college

Pat Howard The public-private coalition of movers and shakers doing business as Rethink Erie is meant to add heft and credibility to the push to establish a community college in Erie County. Advertisement But Rethink Erie has shown something of a penchant for.... - ERIE TIMES

Documentary captures Salk's heroic bid for polio vaccine at Pitt

When the University of Pittsburgh celebrated the 50th anniversary of the polio vaccine five years ago, faculty member Carl Kurlander and his students filmed more than 30 hours of interviews with people who played key roles in the vaccine's creation. "I grew up in... - TRIB

Education Briefs

Behrend alumnus honored with achievement award A 1999 Penn State Behrend graduate has earned a 2010 Penn State Alumni Achievement Award. The award honors graduates age 35 and younger for extraordinary accomplishments and is presented university wide.... - ERIE TIMES

04-11-2010

Pennsylvania's student financial aid agency prepares for its new role in servicing student loans

The name on the North Seventh Street building in Harrisburg will continue to say the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency, but in time, many student loan holders will come to know it by the brand name Federal Loan Servicing. That's the place they.... - PATRIOT

Students to lobby on behalf of independent universities

WAYNESBURG - Three Waynesburg University students will join more than 100 students from other Pennsylvania schools April 20 for the annual Student Lobby Day. Students will participate in various activities held in the Capitol in Harrisburg. The event is sponsored by... - WASH. O.R.

U.S. schools lack faculty to teach nurses

U.S. nursing schools — rushing to fill an ongoing shortage of nurses — turned away more than 49,000 qualified candidates from baccalaureate and graduate nursing programs in 2008 because they didn't have the faculty to teach them, the American Association of.... - TRIB

Questions about projections feed doubts about community college

The public-private coalition of movers and shakers doing business as Rethink Erie is meant to add heft and credibility to the push to establish a community college in Erie County. But Rethink Erie has shown something of a penchant for becoming the issue in that debate.... - ERIE TIMES

State association to hold college fair at the Woodlands on Monday

The Pennsylvania Association for College Admission Counseling Northeast Regional College Fair for high school students and their parents is Monday, April 26, from 9 a.m. to noon and 6 to 8 p.m. at the Woodlands Inn and Resort, Plains Twp. More than 180.... - SCRANTON TIMES

Bioblitz one of many projects for university's wildlife society

A day at the park became a professional learning experience for California University of Pennsylvania students as they participated in a nationally recognized research project. Student members of the university's Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Wildlife Society held.... - TRIB

The Alternative: Younger students give community college a second look

College student Sehrish Shah perched on a well-worn chair in a student activities lounge and pulled markers and glitter paint from her backpack. A white sheaf of poster board was spread on a table, and several other students huddled around it, trying to tap latent... - WASH POST

IUP mini-summit to focus on urgent regional issues

Indiana University of Pennsylvania will host a free day-long social change mini-summit this week. The second of four regional summits sponsored by the Three Rivers Community Foundation, it is co-sponsored by IUP's Center for Civic Engagement and.... - TRIB

Best-selling author O'Dell speaks of success on return to region

With her new novel, "Fragile Beasts," just released and plans for the production of a movie based on her first bestselling novel, "Back Roads," in the works, writer Tawni O'Dell is making her way back home to Southwestern Pennsylvania to talk about her journey to success.... - TRIB

Candidates issue their challenges

NANTICOKE – Saturday night opened the 2010 Challengers' Town Hall meeting, which highlighted several candidates, all vying for seats in the upcoming political elections. In attendance were Sam Rohrer, running for governor; Peg Luksik, U.S.,... - WB TIMES LEADER

Learners experience nature, prepare to succeed in school

CALIFORNIA - Young children will learn about science and nature at an outdoor event presented by a partnership headed by California University and made possible by a grant from the PNC Foundation as part of its "Grow Up Great With Science" program,... - UNION. HERALD

Nobel nominee to speak at Carnegie Mellon University

Wahu Kaara, an advocate for social justice in Kenya, will speak on the roots of global poverty at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Hamburg Hall Room 1000 on Carnegie Mellon University's campus. Kaara is a 2005 Nobel Peace Prize nominee and parliamentary candidate in Kenya. Four years.... - TRIB

PSU alumni keep autism fundraiser going

STATE COLLEGE — Though they have moved away and moved on with their careers, two Penn State alumni haven't forgotten about a charitable event they helped launch. Alumni Adam Dorfman, 2006 president of Beta Sigma Beta, and Andrew Moses,... - CENTRE DAILY

CMU president H. Guyford Stever frequently served his country

H. Guyford Stever, who served as university president when the Carnegie Institute of Technology and the Mellon Institute of Research became Carnegie Mellon University in 1967, died Friday, April 9, 2010. He was 93. Mr. Stever became president of Carnegie Tech in... - TRIB

Industrial evolution: Berks County manufacturers hoping for better times ahead

At the dawn of the 20th century Berks County was an industrial giant. Almost every town had a textile mill. Many had foundries. The black smoke of factories was seen as a manifestation of prosperity. Today, manufacturing in Berks is a shadow of what it once was.... - READING EAGLE

Inside Higher Education

Daily News Update

April 12, 2010

The Worst Salary Year

Most faculty members lost ground against inflation last year, survey finds. more

Appeals Court Upholds Ad Ban

Federal ruling says Virginia alcohol board can prohibit student papers from letting bars promote themselves. Decision contradicts similar case in Pennsylvania. more

The Fix Was In

U. of South Carolina asked architecture firms to compete to design building, let them work for months and spend hundreds of thousands of dollars, then canceled all bids to let the donor pick the winner. more

Commencement Speakers Analyzed at Smith and Announced at Albion, Austin, Holy Cross, Hope, Houston CC, LeTourneau, Sacred Heart, Simmons, Southern Maine, Southern Mississippi, Wentworth, Whitman more