

NEWS CLIPS

APSCUF COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

KEVIN KODISH, DIRECTOR

MONICA TROUTMAN, SECRETARY

APRIL 7, 2010

HERE IS A LIST OF TODAY'S NEWS ARTICLES. TO READ THE COMPLETE ARTICLE CLICK ON THE HEADLINE

Shippensburg University getting a facelift

Shippensburg University is looking to clear up some issues with chilled and dripping water in the latest phases of its capital improvement plan.

Kutztown University undergrads: Save our studies

More than 50 Kutztown University students marched into a student government meeting Tuesday to protest proposed budget cuts that could eliminate several majors, including theater, philosophy and nursing, starting in 2011-12. Carrying signs that read "Do the Math: KU - Philosophy = Embarrassment" and "Save Dance," the students made impassioned pleas to their student representatives in hopes of starting a dialogue with university administrators

Rice turns down Tulane offer, will remain at Robert Morris

Robert Morris basketball coach Mike Rice confirmed to The Times that he has turned down an offer from Tulane to become that school's next coach. Reports surfaced earlier Tuesday that Rice had met with Tulane officials Monday and returned to Pittsburgh to mull over the offer.... - BC TIMES

House Majority Leader Steny Hoyer, John Callahan herald federal student aid bill at Muhlenberg College

ALLENTOWN | House Majority Leader Steny Hoyer joined Democratic congressional candidate John Callahan in a campaign event Tuesday to herald a recent increase in federal financial aid for college students. The Student Aid and Fiscal Responsibilities Act cuts $61 billion over 10... - EASTON EXPRESS

'Exploratory meeting' set between Temple, striking nurses

Is the icy standoff between Temple University Hospital and its striking union members starting to thaw? Temple brass and a subcommittee of negotiators with the Pennsylvania Association of Staff Nurses and Allied Professionals (PASNAP) will attend an "exploratory meeting" today that could lead to a.... - DAILY NEWS

Butler's agony: America was behind the upstarts all the way

There are many kinds of Hollywood endings. What much of America hoped for Monday night to cap the NCAA basketball championship match between Duke and Butler was a rewrite of the movie "Hoosiers." What we got instead was the climactic disappointment of "Rocky," with upstart Butler losing.... - POST-GAZ.

Inside Higher Education
Daily News Update
April 7, 2010

---

Today's Assignment: Pay Up

Citing ethical concerns, some universities prohibit faculty from taking royalties for textbooks they require students to buy. more

---

For-Profit Colleges Boom

As overall enrollments rise by 4.8 percent in 2008-9, private sector institutions grow by 21.5 percent. Other findings: colleges' operating margins shrink, number of students getting aid climbs. more

---

Cinderella Men

Butler's coach nearly led his small-time basketball team to a national title, and now more glamorous programs are courting him. Can colleges outside the big time hold on to top coaches, or is the deck stacked against them? more

---

Eroding Library Role?

National survey of professors finds that many more see themselves as self-sufficient when it comes to doing research. more

---

New Presidents or Provosts: Auburn U. at Montgomery, Greensboro College, Merrimack College, National-Louis U., Ohio Dominican U., Prescott College, U. of Akron, U. of North Texas at Dallas more